Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

- Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record
- You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy for your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.
- Ask us to correct your medical records
- We may say 'no' to your request, but we will tell you why in writing within 60 days.
- You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
- Request confidential communications.
- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will say 'yes' to all reasonable requests
- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say 'no' if it would affect your care.
- Ask us to limit what we use or share
- If you pay for a service or health care item out of pocket in full you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.
- Get a list of those with whom we have shared information
- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we have shared your health information for six years prior to the day you ask, who we shared it with and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and healthcare operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We will provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.
- Get a copy of privacy notice
- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.
- Choose someone to act for you
- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will make sure the person has authority and can act for you before we take any action.

- File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us by phone call text or email.

- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hippa/complaints/.

- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For Certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation
- Include your information in a hospital directory

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when need to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health and safety.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your protection
- Most sharing medical notes or medical health information

In the case of fundraising:

- We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.
